Janco Powers the Cross-border E-commerce Business of Still Group and Mia.com

01/03/2019

To cope with the exponential growth of China's market demand of overseas' beauty and baby products, a trusted logistics partner is the key to be a success in the industry.

Lately, Janco equips Still Group, a multi-national e-commerce business, with our state-of-art logistics service to process the imported goods from Hong Kong to China in our progressive expansion hub at Lau Fau Shan.

The client of Still Group is the renowned unicorn business, Mia.com, which is dedicated to providing well-known beauty, mother and baby overseas' products with approximate 1 million monthly active users online.

With this opportunity of close co-operation, top management believes that the uniqueness of Cross-border e-commerce services will facilitate our logistics business into the next level.
